for 1947

Hyde Park High School

MASSACHUSETTS

The class of 1947 is indeed honored in dedicating the Yearbook to our highly respected head coach and history teacher, Mr. Edward F. Sherlock. For twenty-three years Mr. Sherlock has taught and coached in our school and during those years he has brought added fame to the Hyde Park District by the steady and sometimes spectacular success of his high-school athletic teams.

Mr. Sherlock's forty-eight years of high-school coaching have won for him the title of "Dean of American High School Coaches." This title would be an empty honor were it not accompanied by the high esteem in which the community and all Boston hold the famous coach. Wherever the name of Sherlock is mentioned, there also is mentioned his strict discipline, his rugged adherence to fundamentals, his marvelous knowledge of inside football, and his ability to get the most out of his players.

English High 1899, Mercersburg Academy 1907-1910, Commerce 1915-1921, Hyde Park 1925-1930, 1933-1937, and 1945—those years represent the football teams that made the name of "Skip" Sherlock legendary throughout the East. His boys, whether they went on to college, and scores of them did, or whether they entered into industry, never forgot the lessons "Skip" taught them and their successes have brought a gleam of satisfaction to the old master's eyes.

The rules say that Mr. Sherlock must retire because of age and so we must bid him good-bye. Nevertheless, his youthful appearance and peppery manner indicate that he has many more active years ahead of him. Wherever he goes, he can be sure that the graduates of this class and all other Hyde Park High classes wish him many, many years of happiness and success.

Mary, our blonde-haired beauty, is popular, well-liked, charming, and extremely attractive.

MARJORIE WILLIAMS

80 Radcliffe Rd. Mattapan

Honor Roll 1, 2; Courier 2

Margie's infectious laughter assures us all of her presence. We don't know what she'd do without Jeanne.

ANNA WILSON

11 Drury Rd. Hyde Park

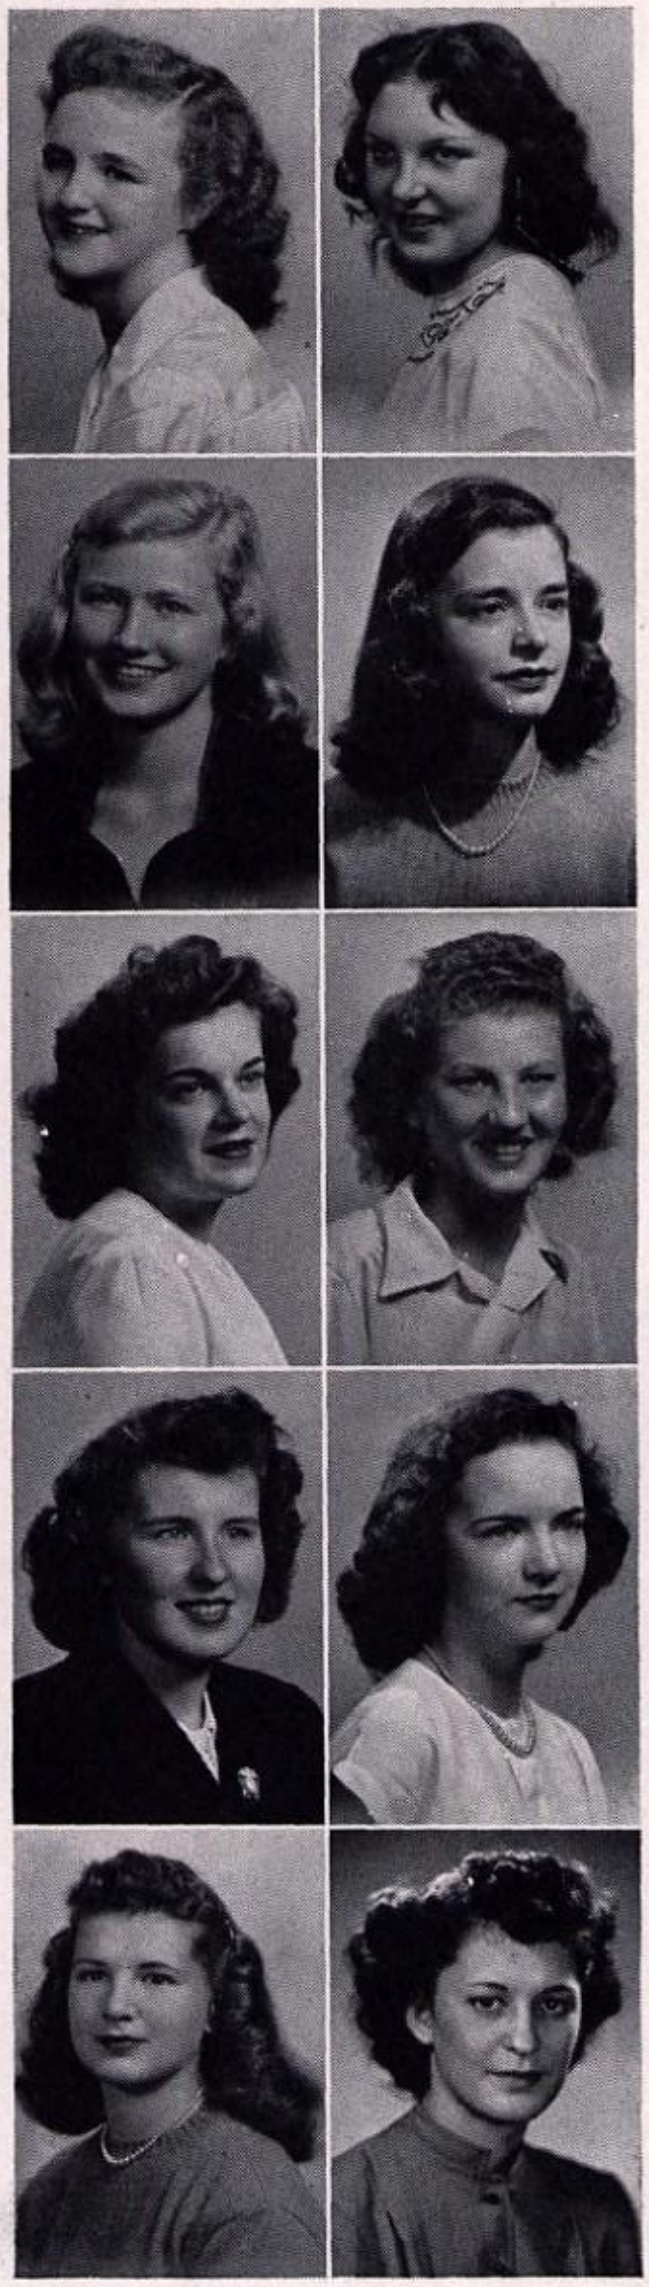
Anna is quiet and reserved but is always ready to assist in any activities. You can always depend on her for anything.

SHIRLEY WINCHENBAUGH

202 Dana Ave. Hyde Park

Honor Roll 4

Shirley is the tawny-haired belle of 206 whose brown eyes and winning smile have made many hearts flutter. We wish her success at Colby Junior.



LILLIAN A. WISE

15 Milton Ave. Dorchester

Honor Roll 2, 3; Glee Club 3

It takes someone as bright as "Lee" to complete four years of high school in three. Her golden voice adds to "Lee's" many assets.

DORIS M. WOLF

101 Westminster St. Hyde Park

Glee Club 2; Dramatic; Cheer Leader 4; Badminton

Doris's good sense of humor and winning personality will certainly see that she goes places when she leaves Hyde Park High.

MARJORIE A. WOTTON

63 Arlington St. Hyde Park

Although Marge had to leave early, we all remember her as a sweet, friendly girl. Her hobby is roller-skating and her ambition is to be a useful citizen.

VIRGINIA A. WRIGHT

22 Walker St. Roxbury

Honor Roll 2, 4; Prophecy Committee

Have you ever noticed our cute Ginny's eyes—and those beautiful lashes! With her personality, she's very popular.

ELAINE YULE

59 Wood Ave. Mattapan

Elaine is our slim brunette of 101,
And what's more she's lot's of fun.
Her clothes are as neat as can be.
She's pretty nice as you can see.

MARTHA F. ZNOTAS

249 Wood Ave. Hyde Park

ROBERT McCARTHY

139 Rowe St. Roslindale

Robert joined the Army last fall. His many friends wish him the best of luck.

ERIC SKAANING

80 Williams Ave. Hyde Park

Eric, the blond good-looking boy, joined the service last fall. We bet he ends up a tech. sergeant.

ROBERT MORIARTY

41 Seymour St. Roslindale

Hockey 3

Moe is a handsome lad from Roslindale. He is also an exceptionally good hockey player. He needs no lifts from anyone in his school work either.

JOHN SULLIVAN

92 E. Glenwood Ave. Hyde Park

"Sy" is missed by all his friends who wish him a speedy recovery.

CLASS

We, the class of 1947, being of sound and hopeful heart, but feeling the infirmities of old age stealing over us, do after much deliberation, and after setting aside a suitable sum to pay our debts and funeral expenses, declare the following to be our last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills, codicils and testaments heretofore made by us:

To Doctor Horgan we leave memories of the class of '47 and hope for an equally gifted and as pleasant a class in '48.

The boys of 217 leave Mr. Lahive all their friendship and loyalty. Good luck to a fine man! From 217.

We leave Skip Sherlock with the almost impossible hopes that H. P. H. will obtain another great coach as good as he. Where will they find one?

To Mr. Kilroy we leave a supply of alarm clocks for all the tardy undergraduates.

We leave Miss Kidder still laughing about the fire extinguisher knocked over by Mr. Cushman.

To Miss Hinchey we leave the hopes of having as tidy and efficient home-room next year as she had in 1947.

We leave Mr. Edward Murphy six closets, eight filing cabinets, and three desks to hold notes 118 still owes him.

To Miss Dowd we leave our sincerest gratitude and thanks for being such a wonderful teacher.

To Mr. Aykroyd we leave a new microphone that doesn't whistle back.

We leave Mr. Lombard in a reminiscing mood about his boyhood days down Maine.

To Miss Sharkey, we leave a trailer so that she can deliver her many friends to their homes after school.

To Miss Doyle we leave the hope that the thoughts of her last homeroom class at H. P. H. will be pleasant ones.

To Miss Hayes we leave a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for her future gymnastic classes.

Mona Killilea leaves for the "Windy City," humming the tune "It's A Sin To Tell A Lie."

Dolores Hunt and Barbara Cwalina leave a well worn path between 201 and 206.

Dorothy Anderson leaves her place on the basketball team for some capable Junior to fill.

Jim Brown leaves to find a jar of freckle remover.

Joe Hergert leaves Mr. Cushman his chemistry equations.

Joan Dimaggio leaves with pleasant memories of the Mid-Winter Dance—and Jimmy.

Robert Pommer leaves, but not without his portable radio for between period entertainment.

Lawrence Boudreau leaves noisily hammering out the dents he put in his father's car.

Alfreda Vosberg leaves Hyde Park High gladly now that Pete has returned to Dorchester.

John Moran leaves his simplified edition of "Income Tax Calculations."

Bill Cavanaugh leaves his mailman's badge so some underclassman may deliver those notes.

Carol Tufts leaves Miss Trommer looking for another girl as faithful as she.

Mary Putnam leaves still wondering how to spell "ukase."

Frank Drozdick leaves with a sigh of relief.

Jim Glancy leaves his books to anyone who will take them off his hands.

Martha Znotas leaves her wonderful Honor Roll record for some Senior of next year to try to equal.

Eugene Foley leaves behind wire, scotch tape, bubble gum, safety pins, and a prayer to help put together the jalopy he drives.

John O'Brien leaves his book on Safety Rules.

Anne Riley leaves, hurriedly followed by readers of her column, "Mopsy."

Jean Sexton, Joan Powers, and Marjorie Williams leave many broken hearts.

Adrienne Lemay leaves her gift of speech to some Junior who can use a ready wit.

Carolyn Bennett leaves, for once—in a hurry.

Virginia Devlin and Therese Moynihan leave their dancing shoes for some fortunate Juniors to step into.

Ruth Murphy leaves her quiet dignity and a host of friends.

Jock Houlihan leaves his gavel to his successors in office.

John Dillon leaves his formula for getting from the third floor to the lunchroom in time to be first in line.

Myrtle Mac Kenzie leaves teacher and pupils wondering if she can ever keep quiet.

Joan MacDonald leaves her wavy brown hair to some cute Junior.

Richard Civitarese, Frank Stahl, and John Stewart start out busily toward drafting jobs.

Jane Cluff leaves for the wilds of New Hampshire wrapped in alpaca.

Anne Purtell leaves Miss Hinchey badly in need of someone to take care of her plants.

Herbie Johnson leaves a 16-gauge shotgun for the next hunter from 223.

Barbara and Adelaide Delaney leave their friendly dispositions, and charming manners.

Roy Carlson leaves a gas model plane for an air-minded Junior.

Barbara Nilsen leaves, humming, "I'll See You In My Dreams."

Dimie Ladas leaves her valuable collection of mirrors for the future occupants of 103.

Paul McGrann leaves his lucky hockey stick for next year's hockey team.

Gidge Roberts leaves and Mr. Seaburg has no answer man.

Virginia Shaw and Virginia D'Allesandro leave a very beautiful friendship.

Bob Noble leaves the memories of two broken legs which so rudely interrupted his school years.

Dorothy Ellis leaves her pleasing personality and quiet manner.

Julia Mariano leaves her very original tardy excuses for some other Seniors to use.

Fred Cardinal leaves still paying installments on his electric guitar.

Madeleine Topham leaves to the strains of "Go West, Young Woman."

Grace Vacca leaves here, but her smiling face will still be here to brighten up 108 next year.

Wally Billings leaves for the Army still wondering how the auditorium piano took the beating it did.

Marjorie Balcam leaves to make a very efficient and charming secretary.

Tony Spinello leaves a quiet corner in 118.

Larry Chapman leaves with thoughts of many happy days in the band with Mr. Whitehouse.

Mary Francioso leaves behind her witty sayings to amuse next years class.

Phyllis Benkert leaves her many friends.

Lawrence Jackson leaves his hockey suit to be made into a curtain for the assembly hall.

Arthur Driscoll leaves a book on "How to Get the Most Out of Your Lunch."

Lucille Roberts leaves still hoping that the ski train service will break down.

Tom Carlezon leaves a beat up basketball in the gym.

Phyllis Olsen leaves still wondering how her mirror could possibly get lost as often as it did.

Eleanor Devine leaves still trying to figure out what some of the health home-lessons were.

Dorothy Verheyen leaves with a tardy card in her hand.

Marie Murray, Beverly McPhee, and Jane Waple leave their skill in writing their own notes to some lucky Juniors.

Helen Parker leaves her beauty formula to some promising Junior.

Billy Martin leaves with a new trumpet and hopes for a steady job in music.

Kenneth Fox leaves still vocal about crooked politics.

Ruth Walsh and Dot Welliver leave, heading for Corriganville to Liddy Finn's.

Paul Crivellaro leaves Skip to run his own gym classes.

We leave Sally Burke to make her future plans with her ex-Marine.

Jack Gallagher and John Ahern leave their excuses for coming to class late.

Anna Fransoso leaves with the honor of having been chosen the "best natured" in our Senior class.

Elaine Yule goes out leaving many broken hearts behind her.

John Driscoll leaves hoping that Mr. Dugan can get a better shorthand writer than he.

Alice Bulman leaves, carrying her easel and paints.

Marilyn Quinn and Marion Wheeler leave together.

Tiny Gloria MacMeekin leaves us still wondering where she gets all her pep and good humor.

Fred Manna leaves his voice echoing around the school from the last game of morra.

Jim Cummins leaves Mr. Murphy with all the latest hockey scores.

Edith Stern leaves her copy of "Macbeth" with best wishes to Miss Gallivan.

Ruth Shaw leaves her favorite high school regretfully.

Dick Boysen leaves in a hurry.

Marie McGowan leaves her art of snapping gum to some deserving Junior.

Richard Talanian leaves an empty seat in the Student Council.

Virginia Slaney leaves her shy friendly way.

Bob Shultz leaves H. P. H.'s football line.

Eugene Sneyd, Frank Truman, and Rocky Stone leave three vacant seats in the last row of Room 22.

Dave Bruce leaves a can of silver polish with which he kept his trumpet gleaming.

Ginny Wright leaves her silky lashes for some sociable Junior to flash around.

Wally Hurd leaves with his well known hair-cut and golden voice.

Karlen Godfrey leaves in Bill's blue wagon.

Grace D'Arrigo leaves, wishing the school clocks were about ten minutes slower at 8:45 a.m.

Arthur Small leaves his fifteen-year rocket pen to be worn out by some industrious Junior.

Sworn and testified to on this 9th day in May, in the year of Our Lord, Nineteen hundred and Forty-seven.

Class Song

(To the tune of "Juanita")

Now we are leaving
The time has come to bid adieu;
We'll long remember
Our dear Black and Blue.
In our hearts we'll treasure
Mem'ries of our high school days,
Years we've spent together
We shall ever praise!

Alma! Alma Mater! In our hearts you will abide,
Alma! Alma Mater! Our dear school and pride.

We'll ne'er forget you
Though we wend our different ways;
Our thoughts returning
To those carefree days.
As we journey forward
We will strive to reach our aim;
And will ever cherish
Hyde Park's honored name!

Alma! Alma Mater! In our hearts you will abide,
Alma! Alma Mater! Our dear school and pride.

Class Poem

At last our books are closed, all lessons said:
But, though we thought to leave without regret,
The day arrives to find us filled, instead,
With memories that linger with us yet.

This is the end. Three years, the life we led
Was planned to shape our futures. Now our debt
To school and mentors must be paid. We tread
These halls, assured our problems will be met.

We leave our honored school with courage strong,
With a determination to succeed . . .
We'll follow Truth and try to right the Wrong;
We'll fight alone, if none should see our need.

This day, on brave though untried wings, we fare;
For, trusting God, and loving man, we dare!

Special Dispatch to the Hyde Park Ledger.

Seen at the Jazzy & Co. Carnival on the George Wright Golf Course yesterday were many members of the class of 1947. Among the individuals featured at the carnival besides Madame Nina, the world's fattest woman, and Joe Rubberall, the Indian Rubber man, is Madame Seeallknowall, the fortune teller who gave many interesting prophecies about the class of 1947.

In ten years, she tells us this is what has happened to some of the well known members of the famous class of 1947 at the Hyde Park High School.

Dorothy Keller, Jackie Lattie, Lovell Fawcett, and Irene D'Allèssandro are giving Mr. Tangora some stiff competition with their 144 words a minute.

The "Choke Choke Supper Club" is featuring Billie Ryan, Barbsy Lazarovich, and Peggy Shannon as star vocalists on their television radio program on Broadway.

John Bauer has become an ardent sportsman when it comes to hunting and fishing.

Tina Finamore has finally pursuaded Lefty to tell her the secret of growing as he no longer needs it.

Feets Flaherty, Skip Tobin, and Joe Feeley recently opened their Beauty Parlor on Broadway.

Maureen King, Hazel Irons, and Kathleen Todd have opened a portrait studio and some of their featured models are: Mary Wheeler, Ruth Sullivan, Joan Powers, Jean Davis, and Virginia Wright.

The private secretaries at Dunn and Bradstreet are: Joyce Corbett, Margy Molway, and Gloria McMeekin.

Handsome Joe Beausang is now running his own Insurance Company and is sure to make good with his pleasing smile.

Lillian Addy, Ruth Clarke, Barbara Delaney, Ruth Jordan, and Louise Morrison are now running a private nursing home in Newton with Shirley Winchenbaugh as their Medical Secretary.

Doris Wolfe, Rita Valentino, Patsy O'Brien, Margie Sullivan, and Caroline Parise are active members of the "Stretch and Grow Club."

Barbara Spence and Jean Stuart are now teaching English and Journalism at H. P. H.

Marge Ruscito and Ruth Shaw have just come back from Paris with some of the latest styles to sell in a Chic Dress Shoppe they are opening.

Bob McNair is now being featured with Buddy Rich at the Stork Club.

Jean Sexton and Margy Williams have just opened their Fatty Fatty Candy Shoppe.

Franny Keith has become a famous news commentator on a coast to coast hook-up.

Virginia Devlin, Teddy Moynihan, and Mary Murphy have just been signed by MGM for a new film, "Dancing Feet."

Bill Martin, Larry Chapman, and Bill Phipps are currently starring at the R.K.O. with Wally Billings and his Sentimentalists.

Mary Civitarese and Helen Bonn are quite busy these days designing clothes for such top Hollywood actresses as Liddy Finn and Phyllis Benkert.

Phyllis Olsen, Priscilla Cote, and Esther Spallone have still managed to retain their golden locks.

Dot Anderson and Dimi Ladas have become quite successful as a result of selling their "Up and At Em" Vitamin Capsules.

Marie Cardani is now designing clothes in her own dress salon for the model Estelle Piolunek with Pat Taylor officiating in the showroom as head saleslady.

Audrey LaBier, Theresa McDermott, Alice Campbell, and Adelaide Delaney will be featured in the Skating Vanities of 1949.

Barbara Nicholson and Margie Malloy have taken over the ownership of the "Italian Kitchen."

L. E. Mason's is under new management with Ruth Olson as one of the top three.

Joe Burke, Dick Talanian, Ed Rein, Arthur Small, and Ernie Gaiser are now first string on the Boston Celtics.

"Rog" Higgins and Angelo Polvere are heads of the Math Department at Northeastern.

Have you visited Dot Welliver and Ruth Walsh's "Soda Shoppe" lately for one of their specials?

Alice Giovannucci and Mary Rudge are two of "United Airlines" most popular hostesses.

Pauline Dunn has been chosen the "Pride of the Marines."

Knowing that this was Coach "Skip" Sherlock's last Hyde Park football team, the Parkers went out to do or die on the gridiron last fall and although the record shows five wins to four losses, the boys were never outgamed or really outclassed in any game. The true spirit of the team was shown in its last ditch rally in the final game against our traditional rival, Jamaica Plain. With the score tied thirteen all and less than a minute left to play, Captain John Koffske rifled a thirty-yard pass to our fighting end, Bobby Schultz. Master Robert made a clean snatch on the midfield stripe, bowled over two opponents, and outraced the field to pay dirt.

Thus a brilliant and stubborn foe was sunk while old Ned Sherlock, his eyes popping and his voice breaking with excitement, was raised on the shoulders of his delighted kids. Photo bulbs flashed and newsmen clamored for a statement from the old silver fox of the Boston coaching clan.

The Skipper rolled his quid and gave the following quote to the scribbling reporters, "In all my forty-eight years of high school coaching, I never saw a better finish. In the last quarter of this game, my boys produced some of the most thrilling football it has been my pleasure to watch. To say the least, I'm proud of them and I want to publicly thank these Hyde Park young fellows for helping to wind up my Hyde Park career in such a thrilling and satisfactory manner."

All season long All-Scholastic Johnny Koffske was a tower of strength. His passing against English High and East Boston was unsurpassed in the entire Boston season. A gamester to the core, he tossed two quick touchdown passes in the last quarter against Eastie, despite the fact that his lip had been split wide open a few plays before. His cut-back run to the weak side against Roslindale followed by a ninety-yard broken field run for the winning tally was one of the gems of the season.

The running of Quinn, Fata, and Garber, the clever play-calling and defensive work of Mitch Hayes, and the hard charging of Jud Giardino, were other backfield high-lights.

Ends Schultz, Murray, and Cibotti did fine work in covering the flanks and grabbing the forwards.

In the middle of the line Elmer Langley and Jock Houlihan showed to good advantage. The heavy duty line work was well done by Bob McLean, Bob Lanata, George Ciovaco, Joe Shanks, Red Brady, Donald Conti, Jim Buckley, and Vin McDonough. Other players that carried on well when called upon were Frank McCarthy, Larry Silver, Paul McGrann, Frank O'Sullivan, Chet Molinario, Bob Neelon, Johnny Bauer, and Bobby Leadbetter.

The Jayvees proved stubborn on the defense giving up no points as they tied two and won one. Many of the J.V. youngsters showed good promise and should be varsity timber next year.

With Johnny Koffske and "Smokey" Maloney leading the scoring, Bill Dugan's Black and Blue hoopers clinched the District Championship and just missed the city flag as Latin out-scored old Hyde Park in the season's best game.

The whole squad showed finesse and speed. Much credit is due to the following Varsity players: Nessar, Budkus, Maloney, Captain Koffske, Kiggen, Enos, Deluca, Ciovacco, Trovato, Freeman, and Hunt.

Coach Ed Murphy's pucksters went through another stellar season winning three, tieing two, and losing two. Don Leavitt was high scorer of the season followed closely by Captain Paul McGrann, Jim Walsh, and Larry Jackson. Don Dacey and Butch Brady also skated on the two lines which were equally good. Jack Creamer and Angie Polvere who skated defense held off the attacks of the opposing players splendidly. Bill Curtis and George Cummins filled in on defense while Ollie Olivieri, Larry Silver, and Bill Hoppe were line reserves. The goal was tended by Red Dacko and Jim Surette who was injured.

DISTRICT CHAMPIONS

Captain—George Garber

Coach—Edward F. Sherlock

For the thirteenth time the Black and Blue captured first honors in the District Meet, nosing out our respected rivals, East Boston and South Boston.

One of the highlights of the Boston season was George Garber's great race at the Boston Garden when he pushed Muscato of Concord to a new record in the 600. George himself nipped the old record.

Consistent place winners on the boards this winter were Wally Quinn, Paul Fata, John Ollive, Anthony Cibooti, Warren Paine, Dave Christenson, Dave Pike, Armand Ferrandi, Sam Pickering, Eddie Freeman, Jerry Hill, Louis Carbone, Bob Hamlin, Mitch Hayes, Louis Bartula, Frank Kearney, Roy Ingram, Rocky Stone, Francis O'Sullivan, Joseph Meere, Al Piccirilli, Otto Anderson, and Johnny Bauer.

In the Reggies, Armand Ferrandi raced to a new record of 21 seconds in the Class D 176-yard run.

Girls' Sports

The 1947 girls' basketball team meets in the gym every Tuesday afternoon. This team is composed of Senior girls who were chosen for their outstanding ability by Miss Hayes and Miss Keating. As captains we have Dot Anderson and Dimi Ladas.

Every Wednesday afternoon in the girls' gym we have Social Dancing, a new program for Senior and Junior girls. The girls are taking advantage of the wonderful opportunity to learn to dance under the direction of Miss Hayes.

Badminton is a popular sport and many of our Seniors are expert in keeping the feathered shuttlecock in play.

Active in the girls' sports are: Madelon Topham, Jane Cluff, Dot Anderson, Lu Roberts, Irene Gioiosa, Mary Francioso, Margie Mitchell, Marilyn Quinn.
